

Bits and Pieces Newsletter

Quilters Guild of Indianapolis. December 2021

President's Message

We may not all be affected in the same way, but we are all going through this pandemic together as a human race. It is incredibly humbling. It's invited me to really take account of the things that matter most, which aren't things at all...they're people. - Grace Potter

For those of you that read this newsletter, you may recognize the above quote. I used it to begin my first letter, a year ago now. It so beautifully summarizes how I felt then, and now, about these times in which we live. It was the basis upon which I founded our theme for 2021, community and being together, in whatever form that took.

Our 'being together' has slowly evolved from the virtual world of Zoom and phone calls, to some bees meeting in person again, a few retreats here and there, an in person quilt show or two, to finally getting to meet in person as a guild in November. And yet, this pandemic is far from over and there are still too many of our dear quilt friends who are not yet able to join us in person. For those folks, we continue to use Zoom. We will learn how to perfect the hybrid meetings. We've come a long way, but there is still far to go.

This year, and this progress, could not have happened without the incredible board that makes up the QGI leadership team. I offer my sincere thanks to each person chairing a committee and serving to make our guild so strong and rich. Rich in talent, in friendship, in variety and giving. I am humbled to work alongside each of you.

I am honored to have served as President of QGI. When I agreed to do this, I had no idea I'd be serving during a pandemic, and yet, none of us expected these last 20 months! While it offered its own unique set of challenges, we more than survived, we grew stronger through it. I am sad to have missed meeting in person because I missed the chance to get to know more of you personally, face to face. That's it really, 'the things that matter most, which aren't things at all...they're people'. And that's you. Thank you for staying with the guild, zooming into meetings, doing charity work, reaching out to friends you haven't seen in too long, welcoming our members and continuing to share the passion of quilting.

Thank you for the opportunity to serve as your president. I can't wait to see you in the new year. Whether it's inperson or virtually, let's stay together.

Lynn

QGI Evening Meeting Minutes, November 11, 2021

By Jacqui Griswold, Secretary

Our president, Lynn Thomas opened the hybrid in-person/Zoom meeting at 7:02 by welcoming everyone. She reminded us the theme for 2021 continues to be “Community”... Reach out to each other.

- The local Akoma Ntoso quilt guild joined us to enjoy our speaker
- We sang Happy Birthday to the November birthdays
- June Taylor discount of 30% and free shipping (announced by our speaker for QGI Day) is good until the end of November. Code North30
- QGI Zoom Sew In's that met 3rd Sat and 4th Fri. are on hold until after the new year and interest will be reassessed
- QGI- Southside is planning to resume meeting in January at Friedens United Church of Christ [8300 S Meridian St, Indianapolis] Need volunteers for leadership positions
- QGI Dec meeting – In addition to regular show and tell, we want to have a Special Christmas Show & Tell – send pics to Lynn and bring if you attend in person any quilted item you have made – doesn't have to be recently. We will also play the game “Left, Right, Center” with 5” holiday fabric squares.

Leigh gave a demonstration on how to upload your picture to the website (this helps us put names and faces together]

Mary White [Spring Retreat] will be in Shipshiwana IN April 1-3, 2022. You can sign up on the website and send deposit to hold your spot now.

Libby Gilbert – next QGI Day meeting is Dec. 1st at 1:00 we will have 3 mini workshops taught by guild members

Mary Strinka [Charity Quilts] – A big thank you to the members attending in-person who turned in 14 completed quilts

Nancy Trullinger [Quilt Show Oct 7-8, 2022]-We still need a volunteer coordinator, someone to oversee T-shirt sales and a peony (resale) shop assistant, and opportunity quilt sales. A volunteer was identified to oversee the Cherrywood Fabric Princess Di traveling exhibit that evening.

Sara Buckwald introduced the (Zoom) speaker for the evening program

Carole Lyles Shaw -- “What Makes a Modern Quilt?”

Carol said there were many myths about what was required for a quilt to be classified as modern. It does NOT need to use gray fabric. Quality piecing does count and you can use something other than straight line quilting. You CAN use batiks and older fabrics. It does NOT have to have mostly negative space. There are guidelines – not rules for how to describe a modern quilt. Use of asymmetry, angularity and bold contrast [our website has a hand-out Carol shared with design principles and ways to contact or follow her]

Show & Tell – so nice to be able to see the quilts in person again

Hospitality / Door Prizes – Since we had about 40 people on-line and 45 people in-person, door prizes were divided with half being awarded to the lucky numbers in the room and the others to those entering on-line after the meeting through a random draw – winners need to pick up prizes from Connie Lancaster.

PLEASE PAY YOUR DUES FOR 2022!

I'm sure you have heard the phrase "Time flies when you are having fun." Well to continue the fun of guild meetings, workshops, and your chance to enter your quilts in our fabulous 2022 "Quilting At The Crossroads" Quilt Show, now is the time to pay your 2022 membership dues. To ensure your access to zoom meetings and workshops after January 2022 you need to pay your dues by December 31. This will save our website gurus from having to manually change the individual member records of those who have not paid their dues by the end of December. Your cooperation is much appreciated.

You can do it easily in one of the following ways:

1. You can pay with $30 cash or a check made out to QGI at the in-person meetings on December 3 (1:00 pm) or December 9 (7:00 pm) at Orchard Park Presbyterian Church, 1605 E. 106th St., Indianapolis, IN.
2. Current members: Go to our website at www.quiltguildindy.net and click on the button "Current Members - Pay 2022 Dues." Follow the directions to pay your dues using a credit card. Dues are $30 plus a $2 processing fee.
3. Current members may pay by sending a check made out to QGI for $30 (there is no processing fee) and mailing it to;

Maureen Weflen
3247 Autumn Ash Dr.
Zionsville, IN 46077

4. New Members may also use the above options to pay dues.
If paying with a credit card, go to our website, scroll down and click on the green square labeled "JOIN - Become a Member." Follow the directions to pay your dues. Or if you prefer, send a check to Maureen as noted above. Also provide your home address, phone number and email address. We do not share member information with any outside sources.

January 13, 2022 Evening Meeting at OPPC and on Zoom! Meeting Speaker: Lisa Dodson

Lisa creates visual art with a variety of layered materials and uses hand and machine stitches to complete the process. Her style mirrors her love for the natural world when creating art quilts with non-traditional materials, techniques and her own surfaced designed fabrics. Many of her pieces have been accepted into juried global and regional exhibits. Lisa currently serves as the Regional Co-Representative for Studio Art Quilt Associates of IN. In 2013 she launched her current business Lisa Loves to Quilt to promote quilting through teaching, exhibiting and presentations. To catch up on the latest of what Lisa is up to you can find her on Facebook at Lisa Loves to Quilt.

Meeting Lecture - Lisa Loves Little Art Quilts

As Quilters we have created quilts to cover the beds of family, friends, neighbors and sometimes strangers. Now it's time to start covering the walls with quilts. Lisa will present her, "Little Art Quilts" talk, to inspire your creativity with a variety of materials and techniques. She will share ways to display and exhibit the finished pieces so they will never be mistaken for a potholder. Little quilts fill small spaces and make wonderful gifts.

QGI Day Meeting Notes, November 5, 2021

Jill Repp from June Tailor, Inc gave a wonderful program for the November QGI Day meeting. She went over many of the company's products, giving examples and helpful hints for those who wanted to create it themselves. Examples of their products were a hanging towel for kitchens, easy to install zippers, a lunch box kit and a T shirt quilt kit. All of the products seemed very practical and doable.

Announcements were made next and included the following:

- *Please pay your 2022 dues if you haven't already.
- *QGIS will start up on Jan. 27 at Friedens Church.
- *InFiber show at the Phoenix Theater, 705 N. Illinois tonight. Please have proof of vaccination and a mask.
- *Challenge Quilt information - see Maureen for questions
- *QGI Program - Carol Lyles Shaw - the meeting will be our first hybrid meeting.
- *Quilted Glo fall sale Nov. 15-16

The next QGI Day meeting will be on December 3. The program will be three mini workshops by QGI members Peg Bertelli, Nancy Trullinger and Maureen Weflen. This will be a hybrid meeting. If you'd like to attend in person, we will meet at Orchard Park Presbyterian Church. If you'd like to attend virtually, a link will be provided on the website.

QGI Day Meeting on December 3, 2021 at OPPC!

WORKSHOPS POSTPONED - Meeting Cancelled

Please join us on Friday, December 3 at 1:00 at Orchard Park Presbyterian Church or virtually, your choice, for the December QGI Day Meeting. The program will consist of three fun mini workshops. Our presenters will be QGI members Maureen Weflen, Nancy Trullinger and Peg Bertelli. All three talented and creative speakers will present a quick project or demonstration.

QGI South In Person Meetings Are Back!

Thursday, January 27, 2022, 10:00am to Noon
Friedens United Church of Christ
8300 S. Meridian St., Indianapolis, IN

Friedens United Church of Christ has opened their doors to our group to hold guild meetings again. These meetings will not be on Zoom for the time being as the equipment needed is not available. We have changed the time of the meeting to earlier in the day so folks can go out to lunch together after the meeting if they so choose.

Dallas Reed has stepped up to host the meetings and others have volunteered to handle Hospitality and Door Prizes. Dallas is working on a schedule of programs for the year. If you have any suggestions for speakers you would like to hear, email them to Dallas at dallasreed@att.net. Or feel free to call him at 317-363-4116.

Join us in January for a chance to reunite with fellow quilters and share your quilts for show and tell. A Jenny Quilter email will be sent out with more details on the meeting in January.

QGI QUILT SHOW 2022 - LESS THAN ONE YEAR AWAY!!!

Can you believe it?! Only one year until the show.

One very exciting feature at the 2022 show will be the display of the Cherrywood Challenge of Princess Diana! This is a large group of approximately 100 beautiful art quilts honoring Princess Diana. I am so excited to see the whole group! We are looking for someone (or more than one person) to take the lead for the display at the show. Please let me or Marcia Hackett know if you are interested.

Just as a teaser, I will share with you that we have not one, but TWO opportunity quilts for raffle this show. One quilt is more of a traditional style and the second has more of a modern flare to it. Both are beautiful! Again, we are looking for someone to lead the ticket sales for these fabulous quilts. Please let me or Marcia Hackett know if you are interested in helping with sales.

The next show planning meeting will be at New Joy Lutheran church November 21st at 2:00.

The church is located at 156th and Springmill in Westfield.

Will you please consider joining our planning team to make it a super show? Positions that are still available are:

- Opportunity Quilt Ticket Sales
- Volunteer Coordinator
- Peony Shop Assistants
- T-Shirt Sales
- Cherrywood exhibit Lead Person or Persons

Thank you for your consideration - we can't do it without you!

It's Time for a Challenge!

by Maureen Weflen

Have you started your challenge quilt yet? I hope you will join me and enter a challenge quilt at our show next year. I am sharing another challenge quilt I made using Morse Code in the rainbow to convey a quote by Dolly Parton. I have other ideas floating around in my head and hope to make other quilts with Unspoken Messages using other ways to express a message. I know there are a lot of clever and artful quilters in our guild. Please join in the fun!

On the next page are the instructions for making a challenge quilt with your own message. The June Newsletter contains all the other charts you might use to compose your message. Or don't include any words at all—your quilt alone may say it all. For example, if you quilt contains multiple roses or hearts it could symbolize a message of "Love." If you have any questions, feel free to contact me via email at maureenweflen@att.net, or call me at 317-270-7414 (afternoons or evenings). Let's have fun with this challenge!

Learn Morse Code

You can write Morse code, or send it via sounds or lights. Dots represent a short sound or light, and dashes a long sound or light.

“Unspoken Messages” - New Additional Options

Have you stopped to think about the ways you can send a message without using the written word, texting or speaking?

A. Our facial expressions, body language, mannerisms or gestures can convey any number of thoughts or feelings to others.

B. For those of you old enough to remember, Morse Code was invented by Samuel Morse for use over telegraph lines in 1835. The code uses a series of dashes and dots to represent letters of the alphabet. Morse code can also be sent using flash lights, whistles, horns, the tapping of stone on stone, a laser light reflected on an object or even by flags. A flag swung to the right represents a dot, to the left a dash.

C. Messages are also conveyed using flowers (800florals.com). For example, it is generally believed that giving someone red roses sends the message “I love you”. A yellow tulip can mean There’s sunshine in your smile.”

D. Many of us use emojis on our cell phone to send a message to our friends (emojipedia.org). Did you know the World Emoji Day is July 17 each year? ;o)

E. Another way to send a message is using shorthand -- an older way of encrypting” your message. The Ford Improved Shorthand (www.FordShorthand.com) simplified the older Gregg Shorthand Method.

F. You could also use Sign Language (see chart in June newsletter)

G. US Road Signs (without words) at mutcd.fhwa.dot.gov

H. How about the International Signal Flags at <https://www.marinareservation.com/articles/nautical-flag-meanings/>

I. Other means of conveying a message without written words (your choice).

K-Kilo
Desire to Communicate

THE CHALLENGE - REVISED

Create a quilt (measuring 18” wide by 30” long) that conveys a message you want to send to your fellow quilters, a family member or other relative, an elected official, your significant other, our first responders to the pandemic, to highlight a cause/movement you support (climate change, criminal justice, breast cancer awareness, etc.) or to celebrate an important event in life (marriage, birthday, graduation, first job, new puppy, etc.). You get the idea. Then convey that message in your quilt using one or more of the methods listed above. Your message should not contain any written words. We want the show visitors to look at your quilt and attempt to decipher the message you are sending. We will reveal the message on the registration card that is posted by your quilt.

The Third Thursday Charity Quilters with Mary Strinka

Thank you to everyone who has been continuing to work on charity quilts!

Thanks to your generosity, in the month of September, QGI has donated 154 quilts of various sizes to Exodus Refugee Resettlement, as well as 75 pillowcases. Exodus assists refugee families as they are released from Camp Atterbury, helping to find housing and employment opportunities here in Indiana and many other places.

Dallas has also taken 60 quilts to St Elizabeth Home and 20 to Birth Options.

The Third Thursday charity group will meet again on Thursday, October 21 and Thursday, November 18.

We would love to have more people come with sewing machines, so we can get more quilts from “just a top” to being layered and pinned and stitched and trimmed and turned and eventually, done!

Join us at North United Methodist Church (38th and Meridian) around 9:30 AM, and stay all day, or as long as you can.

If you have any charity quilts that you have tied or quilted or put binding on, contact Mary Strinka to arrange pickup.

If you'd like to have some nearly-finished charity quilts to add binding, or to tie, contact Mary. If you're a longarmer, and you'd like to help out with some quilting, we can get the top, back, and batting to you. Contact Mary.

We exchanged a lot of in-process and finished work at our daytime picnic meeting in Fishers last month. If you would like to suggest a suitable park or parking lot where we can meet to give and take our charity work, let me know.

My Mazda van and I are looking for adventure!
