QGI Show and Tell - July 13

QGI MEETING - AUGUST 10, 7PM - ORCHARD PARK PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

SPEAKER: KEVIN WOMACK - LECTURE AND TRUNK SHOW

Please join Kevin on a tour of his quilting journey as he shares over 75 examples spanning 35 years. Just how did he get here? From the start in 1986, we will follow his path through traditional quilting to art quilting, and his love of hand dyeing and surface design techniques that leads to where he is today.

QGIN MEETING - JULY 7 - THE BARRINGTON

Our July meeting featured Maggie Carr and Maureen Weflen presenting a slide show of their textile trip to England and Wales in August 2022. The presentation was complete with fascinators, British flags, examples of special edition Coronation fabrics by Lois and Irene, and delicious homemade scones from Maggie. The presentation was recorded and is available on our website: Members>Forum>Meeting Recordings>July 7.

Here are a few show and tell photos from that day.

QGIN Events You Should Plan to Attend by Pam Durant

MEETINGS HELD AT THE BARRINGTON, 1335 S. GUILFORD RD., CARMEL IN

TIME: 1PM - 3PM

Aug 4th It is time for me to lay out Map Quilts! I hope that you can join me at the Barrington for an (okay I'm prejudiced) interesting talk on Map Quilts. I will review a number of beautiful map quilts, and I hope to inspire you to make one of your own. Maps take you on a journey, or give you information about a special place. A fabric map will last longer than that map your mom struggled to fold properly before your dad got mad. Fabric maps tell stories that cover a wide variety of memories. You may not have ever thought of making one before, but I hope to spark your imagination. You'll have plenty of time to decide and gather materials for this, since the Workshop won't be until October 7.

Sept 1st Xenia Cord and Mary Jane Teeters-Eichacker have put together an informative talk on Quilt Contests sponsored by the Indianapolis Star starting in 1976. They will be with us in person at the Barrington. I was fortunate to preview this talk when they presented it at the Midwest Fabric Study Group, and I learned much about a time before I became a quilter. Some harkened back to the early blocks carried in the 20s and 30s, asking for a new twist on these blocks. Play back the memory tapes and see if you or your friends (guild members or not) may have made a quilt for one of the Star contests. Bring friends and quilts to share this moment of time in the history of Indianapolis quilting.

Oct 6th Sacha Brady will join us in person for an interesting talk on Dying Fabric with Natural Materials. Maureen Weflen recommended I hire Sacha after hearing her talk the Indianapolis Modern Quilt Guild. Sacha is a life-long learner and you are sure to enjoy all the dying options she will share.

Oct 7th Are you ready to have a great day sewing with others? Plan on spending the day in Zionsville with friends and learn a new skill. As a follow up to my Map Quilts lecture in August, I'm hoping to show you how to construct a map quilt that you will be proud of. You will have had time to figure out what you want to do, but if you have any questions send me an email (I'm in the member roster) I can give you suggestions on where to find ideas, and where to begin on the road to an extraordinary quilt for you, or a special friend, or a family member. This is a doable wall quilt. Join us!

QGI South Meeting –July 27, 2023

Friedens United Church of Christ

8300 S. Meridian, Indianapolis 10:30-12:30

Leanne Anderson opened the meeting and we sang Happy Birthday to members with a July birthday.

Prayers were requested for one of our southside members who is in the hospital battling a serious illness. We wish Roxanne a speedy recovery.

Margaret Toll who was to be our speaker this month was not able to be here due to some unforeseen circumstances but we nevertheless had a fun workshop in small landscape quilting. Leanne Anderson and Christine Hurley led the workshop. Several members had a complete landscape top made by the end of the meeting.

Announcements:

Margie Lindeman had a new BOM for those participating to share with us.

Katrina Jewula reported that the date for the 2024 Quilt Show has not been selected yet as she is waiting to hear from the Fairgrounds when space will be available.

Joyce Blakely made a plea for volunteers for the show. It takes many hands to make a successful show.

Christine Hurley announced three dates for upcoming Sew Days for Quilts of Valor. Those dates are September 9, November 4 and January 6 2024. These sew days will be held at Rosedale Hills United Methodist Church, 4450 South Keystone Ave, Indianapolis. There will be a pitch in for each.

Five members had Show and Tell. Door prizes were awarded to those present. This month there were 24 members present and 1 guest.

The next meeting for QGIS will be August 24. We will be having a garage sale of our quilting related items.

QUILTERS HALL OF FAME SCHEDULE OF EVENTS

925 S. Washington St., Marion, Indiana

It was a sweet time, honoring Elly Sienkiewicz as our newest honoree in July. We thank every one of you for your help in making it a special time for Elly. If you did not make it Celebration to see Elly's quilts, they will be on display at The Quilters Hall of Fame August 1 through September 30, 2023. They are spectacular quilts. And the story about traditional Baltimore Album quilts is a very interesting story of friendship, sharing and creativity. Please stop in to see the quilts! Tuesday – Saturday, 10am – 4pm. $7 admission, $6 seniors.

August 1 – September 30: Elly Sienkiewicz, TQHF 2023 Honoree We are pleased to share Baltimore Album quilts made by 2023 honoree Elly Sienkiewicz. A quiltmaker, researcher, writer, designer, author, teacher, and lecturer, Elly's name is synonymous with Baltimore Album Quilts. Her devotion as a teacher, her concern for her students and her love for quilting have made her a cherished mentor to many. Come to TQHF to see her quilts and get better acquainted with Elly and her artistry.

August 26: Open House- Free Admission into the Museum

October 3 – December 9: Let's Face It

The Quilters Hall of Fame is excited to present the work of members of INfiber, a group of Indiana artists seeking to interact together to produce works of individuality and aesthetic cohesiveness in fibers. This exhibit features the study of faces, whether human or animal. We are honored to feature this work from Indiana artists!

November 18: Holiday Craft Boutique

The talented ladies of the Marie Webster Quilt Guild will have their handcrafted treasures for sale at The Quilters Hall of Fame, 926 South Washington Street, Marion, IN. Free admission.

INDIANA HERITAGE QUILT SHOW CHALLENGE QUILT

BLOOMINGTON, IN FEBRUARY 29 - MARCH 2, 2024

Do you have a stash of precious batik and/or hand-dyed fabrics you have been hesitating to cut up for a long, long time? Our challenge, should you accept it, is to start cutting and creating....set those batik and/or hand-dyed fabrics free!!

Feel free to cut and go where your imagination takes you! Entries can use any technique or variety of techniques. Go ahead and piece or appliqué or embellish or fussy cut or embroider....whatever it takes to make your vision! Traditional? Go for it! Modern? Go for it! Art is your vibe? Go for it! All of the above? Go for it!

The rules are: Your quilt must be at least 75% hand-dyed and/or batik. It must measure 30 inches by 30 inches. And, it must follow the show guidelines for quilt entry. Additional show information is at ihqs.org. So be brave! Cut and create with those batik and hand-dyed fabrics and meet this challenge! We can't wait to see the results!
